HOMECRAFT POLICY

Re: Exhibiting of Quilts/other items whose Design
may be subject to Copyright

“It is the desire of the Association to inform competitors wishing to display an item for competition of the following:

A competitor may create an item from a design pattern that he/she purchased for his/her personal use/enjoyment.

A competitor cannot display his/her item using the purchased design pattern in a public facility or exhibition without the permission of the owner of the design pattern.

(Therefore, it is the responsibility of the competitor to obtain this permission from the designer.) The competitor will properly credit the design to the owner. This information should be indicated on the form that will be provided when entries are submitted.

Regarding Prize Money: This is a matter of negotiation between the design owner and the competitor. It is the responsibility of the competitor to negotiate this at the time the competitor is seeking the designer’s permission for use of said design.”

FLORICULTURE & VEGETABLE DEPARTMENT

Rules Governing the Floriculture & Vegetable Show Only
This Department open to Amateurs ONLY

Entries Close: Wednesday, July 30, 2009

1. Exhibits will be received in the Pure Country Pavilion on Friday, August 21, 2009 – 9:00am-11:00am
LATE ENTRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
2. Removal of Exhibits: Fresh flower exhibits and non prize winners may be removed on Wednesday, August 26, 2009 –9:00am-11:00am.
Please notify the office (613 237-7222) in advance if you are unable to pick up your exhibits – exhibits of fresh flowers will be thrown out.
3. Flowers and vegetables must be from exhibitor's own garden unless otherwise stated. Flowers are considered to be fresh flowers in a class unless otherwise stated. Greenery may be used in all arrangements if available, otherwise may be purchased.
Junior Exhibitors may use flowers and vegetables from a relatives garden. Exhibits must not have been previously shown at this Fair.
4. The Exhibition reserves the right to display only prize winners if space makes such a course necessary or to keep some prize winners from the Show if space available.
5. Competitors are asked not to talk to the Judge during judging. The Judge will be pleased to answer questions after the show.
6. Open Display – please consider your containers. Do not use containers of value.
7. Exhibitors should be aware that due to change of environment, some plants may suffer a set back. The Pavilion staff will be available to water plants on a regular basis. If you have a special request with regard to your plant(s), please advise the Committee and every effort will be made to look after your exhibit.
8. Hints for the Exhibitors in Floriculture Classes:
 - All exhibits should be arranged attractively.
 - Cut fresh flowers are to be shown on long stems and where possible with foliage.
 - For taller stems and larger containers, use of cedar is recommended to hold the stems in place.

Note: Cedar used as filler should not show above the container level.

- Flowers should be as uniform as possible.
- Make sure to measure the diameter of the blooms and enter the proper size by class.
- A spray is a portion of a plant with a number of flowers.
- A stem is a plant structure carrying one or more flowers and/or buds.
- A bloom is an individual flower, one to a stem.
- If a bud is not open and not showing any color, it does not count as a bloom and it is a good idea to remove it.
- Exhibits must contain the exact number of flowers specified for the class.
- Do not leave seed heads on the exhibit.
- Watch for wilted petals.
- Remove debris from pot.
- In dahlia classes, green centers should not be showing. The blooms should be at approximately a 45° angle from the stem.
- Ideal gladiolus spikes should show 1/3 open, 1/3 bud and 1/3 green.
- A snapdragon may have more than one spike, note what is specified for the class.
- African Violets should contain only a single crown in a pot.
- In a floral arrangement, the large flowers and strong colours should be at the base. Oasis and any mechanics should be covered.

9. Entry tags must be completed by the exhibitor and attached to the exhibit.

10. Judging - Friday, August 21, 2009– 11:30am
